

CONDITIONS OF SALE PHILATELIA FISCHER

1. Introduction

These general conditions regulate the sale at auction and/or private negotiations of the lots conferred to the Philatelia Fischer. By sending your purchase order or by making an offer the buyer fully accepts all the conditions of sale listed below. All offered material is guaranteed, authentic, legitimate and from legal provenance, with no concealed defects unless otherwise stated in the catalogue. The pictures are integral parts of the descriptions. Any claim related to prints center, margins and stamps characteristics (heaviness of cancellations, etc.) are not accepted.

2. Participation in auction

Philatelia Fischer reserves the right to request the auction participants information regarding personal details and bank references, as well as the right to refuse the participation in case of inadequate guarantees.

3. Participation by mail or online platforms

Orders can be sent by post or e-mail using the appropriate order form duly filled in. By signing and submitting the order forms the participant agrees to pay the hammered price of the lots if the offer(s) should be successful. Claims due to negligence or errors in filling up written offers will not be accepted.

4. Bids

Lots are awarded to the highest bidder.

Offers below base prices are not accepted. The base price represents the minimum price of sale for each item. Offers with the conditions "to the best" or "upon view" are not accepted. In case of two or more equivalent bids, the first received will be considered as the winner.

Base prices in this auction are in Euro and shown in the column next to each description.

The starting price of each lot is that indicated as base, except in the case of offers for correspondence, in which case the starting price will be that of the subsequent increment to the second to the last higher offer (ex: a lot with a €100.00 auction base which receives three offers of €100, €200 and €300 will start from €220).

8. Conditional sale

Lots are sold by Philatelia Fischer with conditional sale in accordance with art. 1523 c.c.; therefore, the buyer will not acquire title to the lots until the full payment of the purchasing price. The risk of deterioration and/or damage of the lots will pass to the buyer upon delivery of the lots. The delivery of the purchased lots is, in any case, subject to prior full payment of the due price.

9. Shipment

If not collected in the shop, all the purchased material will be sent after full payment by insured mail at a flat rate of €10.00 up to 250 gr of weight. The cost of a private insurance will be added according to the value of the shipment. Lots exceeding 1 kg of weight will be shipped only by carrier.

10. Payment delays

Payment delays can be allowed only if explicitly agreed upon (before the date of the sale) according to conditions and terms that must be confirmed by Philatelia Fischer.

11. Payment terms overdue

In case of payment terms overdue (see art. 7) Philatelia Fischer reserve the right to cancel the agreement and to charge the buyer with damaging, applying a penalty of 1% per month.

12. Claims

Claims will be accepted only regarding single lots without expertise and will have to be submitted within 20 days from the collection or the reception date. Claims will be taken into consideration only regarding the authenticity of the lots, the presence of serious flaws and/or concealed defects and/or non conformity between the purchased lots and the and those described in the sale catalogue, according to the judgement of two known experts. In case complaint is accepted, only the amount paid for the purchase of the lot(s) (excluding postal charges) will be refund, being any compensation and/or additional refund specifically excluded (including possible expertise cost incurred by the purchaser). Claims for the following items can't be accepted for any reasons: a) items made by more than 10 pieces not described as single items; b) items described as made by stamps with failures or of mixed quality; c) items described as made by stamps having a value lower than 9% of the catalogue price; d) collections, covers, and accumulations of any kind; e) collections, covers or single lots bearing heavy, passing-through or split postal cancellations or expertizing marks even if not described in detail. In particular, claims regarding lot explicitly described as "to be examined" will not be accepted. As for the lots described at the points a-b- c-d-e, the description has to be regarded as indicative and in no way binding.

13. Applicable law and competent Court

For any controversy the Italian Law shall prevail and the Competent Court is Rome.
