A spectacular mint pair with sheet margin at top (Positions 1 & 3), exceptionally fresh and well centered, showing the HORIZONTAL (5c) RED LAKE handstamp (Type D) in violet, full original gum, NEVER HINGED. Our research leads us to the conclusion that only one sheet was printed of this stamp, these being the sole surviving mint examples. A great addition to a serious collection, VF NH (Unitrade CL21bi) AMONG THE RAREST AIRMAIL STAMPS ISSUED BY THE PATRICIA AIRWAYS & EXPLORATION LIMITED. APART FROM THE STUNNING MINT PAIR, ONLY A FEW ARE KNOWN AND TO THE BEST OF OUR KNOWLEDGE, ALL ARE USED ON FIRST FLIGHT COVERS.

VERY FINE. A REMARKABLE FIRST DAY COVER WITH BOTH OF THE JULY 1, 1851, RATES -- PREPAID 3-CENTS BY STAMP AND FORWARDED WITH 5-CENTS POSTAGE DUE. THIS IS ALSO THE ONLY RECORDED 3-CENT 1851 FIRST DAY OF ISSUE COVER FROM GENEVA, NEW YORK.

Three new stamps were created for use starting on July 1, 1851, after a change in the postal rates -- 1c, 3c and 12c. The basic rates became 1c for newspapers, circulars and drop letters (with an escalation for distance up until 1852), 3c for domestic letters sent up to 3,000 miles, and 6c for letters sent over 3,000 miles. The rate for sending collect, without prepayment, became 5c for up to 3,000 miles and 10c for distances over 3,000 miles. The 1847 Issue was demonetized after July 1, 1851, when the new rates went into effect.

In his census in the 1851 Sesquicentennial book, Wilson Hulme recorded a total of 43 covers used on July 1, 1851, which is the first day they were valid for postage. The example offered here is desirable for a number of reasons, including the clear yeardate on the contents, plus the display of two different rates which had become effective on July 1.

First Day integral-rate circular datestamp on blue folded letter to Wheeling, Virginia, part of contents missing but does read "I send hereon the first stamp issue under the new law", pristine condition, Very Fine, one of the finest First Day covers with the 3¢ 1851 Issue, only 43 are recorded in Wilson Hulme's census, and only four are known used from Boston (one is seriously defective), ex Ashbrook, Richey, Krug, G. B. Smith, Ishikawa and Hackmey, illustrated in Ashbrook, The United States One Cent Stamp of 1851-1857 (Vol. 1, p. 121)

HISTORY AND COMMENTARY

The New 1851 Issue

Three new stamps--1¢, 3¢ and 12¢ denominations-- were necessary after postage rates were revised by Congress during the Fillmore administration. Effective July 1, 1851, the basic rates became 1¢ for newspapers and circulars (with a distance escalation until 1852), 1¢ for drop letters and carrier fees, 3¢ for domestic letters sent up to 3,000 miles, and 6¢ for letters sent over 3,000 miles. Prepayment by stamps or stamped envelopes was not made compulsory until 1855, but for the first time there were higher rates for letters sent unpaid--5¢ instead of 3¢, and 10¢ instead of 6¢. The combination of convenience and the financial incentive to prepay postage led to a rapid increase in stamp use and popularity.

NEXT

Under Postmaster General Nathan K. Hall, the contract to print the 1851 Issue was awarded to the Philadelphia firm of Toppan, Carpenter, Casilear & Co. (Casilear retired in October 1854, but his name was included in plate imprints as late as 1857). To start, only the 1¢, 3¢ and 12¢ (and the General Issue Carrier stamps) were produced. A 10¢ stamp was added in 1855 to meet the new transcontinental rate, and a 5¢ stamp was added in 1856 for use on transatlantic mail. The firm's original six-year contract was extended to 1861, during which time stamps were perforated and three new denominations were issued (24¢, 30¢ and 90¢), for a total of eight different stamps under Toppan Carpenter's contract.

All three 1851 Issue stamps were supplied to certain post offices on or before July 1, 1851, the first day of the new rates. The census of 1851 First Day Covers published by Wilson Hulme in 2001 (The 1851 Issue of United States Stamps: A Sesquicentennial Retrospective, USPCS) tallied 45 covers from 23 cities in 11 states (one in the count was postmarked by the Louisville & Cincinnati Mail Line route agent). Only two of the 45 covers have 1¢ stamps--the Scott 5A cover from Boston (sold in the Gross U.S. Treasures sale) and a cover with a strip of Scott 7 from New York City (ex Jefferys and Grunin). The other 43 have 3¢ stamps, and currently there are no 12¢ July 1 covers known.

The two 3¢ First Day covers offered in this sale are among the finest extant.

Correspondents sometimes intentionally overpaid the 20c rate even when directing the letter via American Packet in order to ensure carriage on either steamship.

VERY FINE. A BEAUTIFUL AND RARE FIRST DAY COVER OF THE 1851 3-CENT ORANGE BROWN USED FROM BALTIMORE, MARYLAND. THIS IS THE ONLY CONFIRMED FIRST DAY USE FROM BALTIMORE.

Three new stamps--1c, 3c and 12c denominations-- were necessary after postage rates were revised by Congress during the Fillmore administration. Effective July 1, 1851, the basic rates became 1c for newspapers and circulars (with a distance escalation until 1852), 1c for drop letters and carrier fees, 3c for domestic letters sent up to 3,000 miles, and 6c for letters sent over 3,000 miles. Prepayment by stamps or stamped envelopes was not made compulsory until 1855, but for the first time there were higher rates for letters sent unpaid -- 5c instead of 3c, and 10c instead of 6c. The combination of convenience and the financial incentive to prepay postage led to a rapid increase in stamp use and popularity.

Under Postmaster General Nathan K. Hall, the contract to print the 1851 Issue was awarded to the Philadelphia firm of Toppan, Carpenter, Casilear & Co. (Casilear retired in October 1854, but his name was included in plate imprints as late as 1857). To start, only the 1c, 3c and 12c (and the General Issue Carrier stamps) were produced. A 10c stamp was added in 1855 to meet the new transcontinental rate, and a 5c stamp was added in 1856 for use on transatlantic mail. The firm's original six-year contract was extended to 1861, during which time stamps were perforated and three new denominations were issued (24c, 30c and 90c), for a total of eight different stamps under Toppan Carpenter's contract.

All three 1851 Issue stamps were supplied to certain post offices on or before July 1, 1851, the first day of the new rates. The census of 1851 First Day Covers published by Wilson Hulme in 2006 (The 1851 Issue of United States Stamps: A Sesquicentennial Retrospective, USPCS) tallied 45 covers from 23 cities in 11 states (one in the count was postmarked by the Louisville & Cincinnati Mail Line route agent). Only two of the 45 covers have 1c stamps and the other 43 have 3c stamps. There are currently are no 12c July 1 covers known.

The Hulme census illustrates five covers from Baltimore, but four of these are either printed circulars dated July 1, 1851 (which were frequently mailed at a later date) or have no confirming evidence of 1851 usage other than an Orange Brown stamp from Plate 1E. This is the only Baltimore cover that can be definitively identified as a First Day use.

After the 1851 stamps were released, problems with the adhesive quality of the gum were reported. An editorial in the Philadelphia Public Ledger, Wednesday, July 16, 1851, states: "The Three Cents Postage Stamps are in many cases nearly useless for the want of sufficient gum to make them stick. Some of them will not adhere, and all of them cause an unnecessary consumption of time to make them do so. This is a matter of complaint with many of our men of business, and one which could easily be removed by the manufacturer."

OF PAPER.

The world's first machine-made envelopes were manufactured and sold at the Thomas de la Rue stand during the 1851 Great Exhibition in London. The De La Rue firm hosted a large exhibit in the British area, displaying examples of their work, including the crowd-drawing "working envelope folding machine... designed by Warren de la Rue so that it would fold, gum, forward and deliver the envelopes all of which had formerly been carried out by hand" (The Postal History of the Crystal Palace, Maurice H. Bristow). According to information given by De La Rue to the late W. Wilson Hulme II, which is now in the possession of Ken Lawrence, Warren de la Rue had improved an earlier envelope folding machine invented by Edwin Hill, brother of postal reform advocate Sir Rowland Hill.

This particular envelope must have been brought home to the United States by an American fairgoer, then mailed from New York City in December 1851, prepaid with the 3c Orange Brown imperforate stamp from the new issue of July 1851. The addressee was a hymn writer and abolitionist. Bristow estimates that fewer than a half-dozen examples of the imprinted envelope are known. This is the only one with a U.S. stamp.

EXTREMELY FINE. THIS IS THE LATEST RECORDED USE OF THE TROY & NEW YORK STEAM BOAT MARKING WITH THE "2CTS" RATE HANDSTAMP ON A COVER WITH STAMPS.

This cover is illustrated and described in detail on pp. 232-234 of Vol. II of Ashbrook's The United States One Cent Stamp of 1851-57. The "Troy & New York Steam Boat" framed marking was used on letters received at Troy from non-contract steamboats carrying mail on the Hudson River. The 2c marking indicates the amount charged by the Troy postmaster, but as recently explained by Daniel J. Ryterband (Chronicle 263), there was no official justification for assessing this fee. In late 1851 or early 1852, the practice of collecting the additional 2c was discontinued.

3c Orange Brown, Ty. II (10A). Horizontal pair, large margins to barely touched, rich color, tied by grid cancels, "Newport R.I. Aug. 9" (1851) circular datestamp on narrow cover to Canton, China, red "RETURNED FOR POSTAGE" two-line handstamp crossed out as is manuscript "Due 39", manuscript "Paid" at top left with "70" rate, completely lacking any additional postal markings, minor edgewear

VERY FINE. AN EXTREMELY RARE EXAMPLE OF THE 3-CENT ORANGE BROWN ON A COVER TO CHINA. THIS IS THE FIRST WE HAVE OFFERED SINCE KEEPING COMPUTERIZED RECORDS.

The 6c postage must have been intended to pay the 3c domestic postage plus 2c shore to ship fee. It was first marked "Due 39" to make up the 45c rate via Southampton (technically it should have been treated as completely unpaid). It was then sent from Newport but returned after receiving the "Returned for Postage" handstamp. This marking matches one used in New York (See Bernard Faust collection, Siegel Sale 1181, lot 1603). Both the handstamp and the 39c payment notation were crossed out at the same time as the "70" notation was made. However, there is no indication this was actually mailed -- it lacks any New York or Boston exchange office or other markings. The cover may have been put into another envelope to avoid confusion, or the contents could have been shifted to another envelope.

EXTREMELY FINE. PROBABLY THE FINEST EXAMPLE OF THIS SPECTACULAR UNION PATRIOTIC DESIGN.

U.S. #24, 35, 1851 1c Blue, Ty. V, and a horizontal strip of three of 1857 10c Green, Ty. III, a sensational cover which illustrates how the Honolulu and San Francisco post offices interacted; this cover left Honolulu, postmarked "Honolulu/U.S. Postage Paid/Sep 8" (M-H 242.03) in red without any stamps on it, carried by the ship Comet, 9/9-9/27/60, to San Francisco; when the letter reached the San Francisco post office, the United States stamps were applied directly over the Honolulu postmark and cancelled with a black "San Francisco, Cal./Sep 28" c.d.s., the date of departure of the Butterfield Overland mail stage for St. Louis; the letter was carried by British packet to London, receiving a red "19" credit in New York, and was received there on November 5; the Honolulu post office was responsible for accounting for any charges due the U.S. for unstamped mail that received the "U.S. Postage Paid" handstamp, additionally, because this cover was being sent to London, Honolulu may have decided it would be better if San Francisco would supply American postage, since it would be recognized and credited by the English postal authorities; very light and minor toning spots, still very fine and desirable; signed by Stanley Ashbrook; ex-Rust, West.

On back is a red Melbourne October datestamp and ms. "1" (d) credit (the ms. "148" on the front was probably a filing number of the recipient or the Melbourne P.O.); some minor foxing, Fine - an intriguing and very rare usage. Aug. 16, 1861" circular datestamps on cover to North River N.Y. with Magnus multicolored "Remember! Ellsworth!!!" Patriotic design depicting Colonel Ellsworth in standing pose in front of encampment in Washington D.C.

EXTREMELY FINE. A SPECTACULAR "REMEMBER ELLSWORTH" MAGNUS PATRIOTIC COVER WITH AN INTERPANE STRIP OF THREE OF THE ONE-CENT 1857 ISSUE.

Elmer E. Ellsworth was a favorite assistant to Abraham Lincoln and the best-known early casualty of the Civil War. After his death in Alexandria, Virginia, in May 1861, Ellsworth's name became a rallying cry for northern vengeance against the rebel southern states.

In 1860 Ellsworth went to Illinois where he studied law in Lincoln's office and helped with his 1860 campaign for president. Ellsworth was only 5 feet 6 inches tall; Lincoln called him "the greatest little man I ever met." He accompanied the newly-elected president to Washington, D.C. in 1861. After the surrender of Fort Sumter, on April 15, 1861, Lincoln called for 75,000 troops to put down the rebellion. Ellsworth raised the 11th New York Volunteer Infantry Regiment (the "Fire Zouaves") from New York City's volunteer firefighting companies and led them to Washington as their colonel. On May 24, 1861 (the day after Virginia's secession was ratified by referendum), with an order that came a day prior, Col. Ellsworth led his troops into Alexandria, Virginia, where Confederate sympathies were strong. He entered the Marshall House Inn, in order to remove a Confederate flag that had been flying over the hotel for weeks. Accompanied by seven men, he went up to the roof and cut down the large flag. On his way down the staircase, he encountered the owner of the house, James W. Jackson, an ardent secessionist who had earlier represented himself as a boarder. With a shotgun blast to the chest, Jackson killed Ellsworth, and then Jackson was killed with a bayonet thrust from one of Ellsworth's men.

Lincoln was deeply saddened by his friend's death and ordered an honor guard to bring his body to the White House, to lay in state in the East Room. Ellsworth's body was then taken to City Hall in New York City, where thousands of Union supporters came to see the "first man" to fall for the Union cause. Thousands of Union supporters enlisted to avenge Ellsworth's death. Most of the offending flag and Ellsworth's uniform, showing the hole from the fatal shot, can be seen today at the New York State Military Museum in Saratoga Springs.

FINE APPEARANCE. A REMARKABLE ATTEMPTED USE OF THE DEMONETIZED ONE-CENT 1857 ISSUE TO PAY THE OBSOLETE CARRIER FEE ON A SEPTEMBER 1863 COVER WITH REGULAR POSTAGE PAID BY A BLACK JACK BISECT AND SINGLE.

The sender obviously considered demonetized and bisected stamps to be valid for postage, but he was apparently unaware that the carrier fee had been abolished in July 1863 when the 2c Black Jack was issued. This was presumably mailed in September 1863, and the post office seems to have been content with half a Black Jack and the 1c to make up the 3c rate.

Ex Neinken. With 1974 P.F. certificate

The Canal Zone authorities made plans to do the same, but were successfully sued by H. E. Harris, and the larger printing never took place. The pane was broken up in 1969.

1962, 4¢ Thatcher Ferry Bridge, silver (bridge) omitted (Scott 157a), sheet margin single, o.g., never hinged, perfectly fresh, centered example of this scarce error, Extremely Fine to Superb.
Scott $8,000.
Estimate $6,000 - 8,000

On Oct. 12, 1962, the Canal Zone issued a stamp commemorating the opening of the Thatcher Ferry bridge across the canal. During the preparation of first day covers a clerk noticed that a plate number block was missing the silver plate number and that the stamps were missing the silver bridge. The authorities made an immediate search and found the remaining 46 stamps from that pane and two additional panes with the error. Shortly thereafter, H. E. Harris & Co. discovered the upper right pane with the missing bridge error in its shipment of 5000 stamps from the Philatelic Agency. The Canal Zone authorities ordered 100,000 copies of the error be reprinted for sale at face value through the Philatelic Agency and began accepting orders. Harris filed suit for an injunction against the special printing. After a two and a half years legal battle he won the case and halted the reprinting. The two intact sheets were laminated and gifted to the Smithonian and the Canal Zone Library museum, and the third was destroyed, leaving only Harris' sheet for philatelists.
Accompanying this lot is an original envelope (dated Mar. 8, 1963) and a series of notices from the Canal Zone Government and the C.Z. Postal Service to Mr. Campbell regarding his order for copies of the promised reprints of the error and the delays resulting from the Harris lawsuit and finally the eventual return of his check on Mar. 13, 1964. Priceless

1962, 4¢ Thatcher Ferry Bridge, silver (bridge) omitted (157a). Well centered, small penciled position "42" on reverse, o.g., never hinged, fresh and Very Fine (photo). $7,500

One pane of 50 was discovered by H.E. Harris in a shipment of new issues from the Canal Zone philatelic agency. When the error was announced U.S. Postmaster General J. Edward Day made plans to intentionally reproduce millions of similar errors, just as he had done earlier when the Dag Hammarskjold inverted background error was discovered. In a landmark case Harris successfully sued to prevent the post office from ever reproducing errors in order to destroy collector value. All known examples are from this pane, which Harris broke up and sold beginning in 1969. The other three panes from the original sheet of 200 were discovered by Canal Zone postal inspectors; two were laminated and presented to the National Postal Museum, and the third was destroyed. #157a, 4c Black, Thatcher Ferry Bridge omitted, position 18, a superb mint example of this, one of the most famous printing errors in philately, flawlessly centered within large margins, brilliantly fresh, o.g., n.h., an extremely fine gem; one full sheet of 200 (which was cut into four panes of 50) was inadvertently printed without the silver bridge, only one of these panes of 50 ever made it into the public's hands, in this case the famous stamp dealer H.E. Harris, who successfully sued the Canal Zone Postal Administration preventing them from deliberately printing tens of thousands of similar errors (much like the famous U.S. Dag Hammaeskjold error), of the three panes that never made it into the public's hands, one pane of 50 each were laminated and donated to the Smithsonian Institution and the Canal Zone government, while the third pane was destroyed, leaving 50 stamps for the collecting public; this is position 18 (as indicated by a small light pencil position number on the reverse of the stamp) and is accompanied by a 1992 PF certificate.

CANAL ZONE, 1962, 4c Thatcher Ferry Bridge, Silver (Bridge) Omitted (157a). Position 42, Mint N.H., brilliant colors on bright paper

VERY FINE EXAMPLE OF THE THATCHER FERRY BRIDGE ERROR.
ONLY ONE PANE OF 50 WAS EVER ISSUED.

According to Canal Zone Stamps, one sheet, consisting of four panes of 50, was printed. Three panes were caught by postal authorities, while the fourth pane of 50 was sent to H. E. Harris & Co. as part of a larger order from the Canal Zone Philatelic Agency. At the same time this error was printed, the U.S. had issued the Dag Hammarskjold error in huge quantities. The Canal Zone authorities made plans to do the same, but were successfully sued by H. E. Harris, and the larger printing never took place. Two of the three other panes were laminated and presented to the National Postal Museum. The third was destroyed. The one pane available was broken up in 1969.

#157a, 4c Black, Thatcher Ferry Bridge omitted, position 24, a gorgeous mint example of this, one of the most famous printing errors in philately, perfectly centered within large margins, brilliantly fresh, o.g., n.h., an extremely fine gem; one full sheet of 200 (which was cut into four panes of 50) was inadvertently printed without the silver bridge, only one of these panes of 50 ever made it into the public's hands, in this case the famous stamp dealer H.E. Harris, who successfully sued the Canal Zone Postal Administration preventing them from deliberately printing tens of thousands of similar errors (much like the famous U.S. Dag Hammaeskjold error), of the three panes that never made it into the public's hands, one pane of 50 each were laminated and donated to the Smithsonian Institution and the Canal Zone government, while the third pane was destroyed, leaving 50 stamps for the collecting public; this is position 24 (as indicated by a small light pencil position number on the reverse of the stamp) and is accompanied by a 1988 PF certificate.

1962, 4¢ Thatcher Ferry Bridge, silver (bridge) omitted (157a). Right sheet margin single, perfectly centered and post office fresh, small penciled position number "30" on reverse, original gum, never hinged, a Superb example of this famed error (photo). $7,500

Accompanied by a letter dated June 17, 1970 from legendary Boston dealer H.E. Harris to the original owner in which Harris states that this is his "only remaining copy" and "The speed with which all 50 copies have disappeared surprises and disconcerts me. Am sorry, in retrospect, I did not place a much higher price on these stamps at the very beginning." Also included is Harris' original invoice for $2,500.

One pane of 50 was discovered by H.E. Harris in a shipment of new issues from the Canal Zone philatelic agency. When the error was announced U.S. Postmaster General J. Edward Day made plans to intentionally reproduce millions of similar errors, just as he had done earlier when the Dag Hammarskjold inverted background error was discovered. In a landmark case Harris successfully sued to prevent the post office from ever reproducing errors in order to destroy collector value. All known examples are from this pane, which Harris broke up and sold beginning in 1969. The other three panes from the original sheet of 200 were discovered by Canal Zone postal inspectors; two were laminated and presented to the National Postal Museum, and the third was destroyed.
